

Long term plan

Subject: English

	Year 7	Year 8	Year 9	Year 10	Year 11
LC1	Greek Mythology Students will read, explore and analyse a range of myths before writing their own.	Detective Fiction Students will explore the context of 19th century Britain and how this influenced writing at the time.	Creative writing Students will take inspiration from great works of literature to craft their own descriptions and narratives.	Jekyll and Hyde This is students' 19th century GCSE text. The full learning cycle will be spent reading and exploring the text's key characters and themes.	Follow an interleaved curriculum

LC2	History of English Language Students will be introduced to the three main periods of English: Old English, Middle English and Modern English. They will look at how our language has been shaped over time.	War Literature Students will look at a range of fiction and non-fiction war literature spanning WW1 and WW2.	A Christmas Carol Students will read and explore the text with a focus on Scrooge's transformation and the wider message of the play.	Jekyll and Hyde This is students' 19th century GCSE text. The full learning cycle will be spent reading and exploring the text's key characters and themes.
-------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

LC3	Introduction to Shakespeare Students will be learn all about Elizabethan England before looking at duality in some of Shakespeare's most famous characters.	Woman in Black Students will build on the skills acquired in Y7 LC4 by reading and analysing a full Gothic text.	Love and Relationships Poetry Students will study six of the fifteen poems from the GCSE anthology.	English Language Paper 1: Fiction and creative writing Students will be introduced to AQA Language Paper 1 and the requirements of the paper.

LC4	Introduction to the Gothic Genre Students will be exposed to many famous Gothic texts before using the conventions to write their own short Gothic story.	The art of rhetoric Student will study the art of rhetoric using style models from famous orators such as Emma Watson and Malala. They will write and perform their own speech on a topic personal to them.	19th Century NonFiction Building on the skills from Y8 LC1, students will be introduced to AQA Language Paper 2.	Blood Brothers This is students' modern GCSE text and students will watch/read the play and explore it's didactic intention.
LC5	Merchant of Venice Students will read the entirety of the play and explore the role of Shylock and his level of blame.	An Inspector Calls Students will debate the role of responsibility in the play and the playwright's message.	Romeo and Juliet Students will read the full text ahead of Y10 focusing on the key characters and themes.	Speeches As per the requirement from AQA, students will plan and present a speech on a controversial topic.	